

3

Watch the video and decide if the sentences are True or False.

1. He got his first copy of the Guinness Book of Records as a birthday present.
2. Martin had difficulty finding old books in the 1980s.
3. Martin's collection now includes about 1,220 books.
4. One of Martin's favourite editions is from 1972 because he found a mistake in it.
5. Martin's most prized possession is in a language that he doesn't know.
6. Martin recommends starting a collection by comparing the first edition with the latest edition.

4

A. Look at the pictures of some records from the Guinness Book of World Records and guess what each record is about. Share your guesses in groups.

Purin - the Japanese beagle

Sir Nils Olav - the penguin

Chico - the cockatoo

Bertie - the tortoise

Lismore Comprehensive School

Swiss World Wedding Fair

B. Research and make a short presentation about the records.